Finca La Joya is located in El Convento, Chachagüí, Nariño and owned by Yermy Neyl Pedraza. The farm is transected by a stream, over which Yermy has built a bamboo foot bridge. The picturesque sights don't stop there. The farm's drying beds sit on a patio that has an incredible view of one of the two ridgelines of the central Colombian Andes where they briefly meet in central Nariño.
